

WAREHOUSE LOGISTICS SPECIALIST (M/F/D)

As a trainee (m/f/d), you will gain an insight into the planning and organisation of logistical processes and the flow of goods. In our incoming goods department, you will receive our presentation equipment, check it and store it. Then you will remove them from the warehouse in our outgoing goods department and prepare them for the next job. In addition, there are tasks with an administrative character, such as dispatch processing. It is important that you have a strong sense of order and a basic interest in logistical processes. Of course, it can be stressful when a large number of goods leave or return, but you keep a cool head and have the necessary physical strength and stamina.
